

RUGGERO MAGNONI

Ruggero Magnoni is a Private Investor and a member of the Board of Directors in various quoted and non-quoted companies, such as IMMSI, KME and Società di Progetto Brebemi, in addition to Senior Advisor's roles for IFM Investors and Trilantic Capital Partners Europe.

In 2006 he became a partner of Compagnie Financière Rupert and a member of the Board of Compagnie Financière Richemont SA up to September 2022. Prior to that, Mr. Magnoni held a number of senior roles at Lehman Brothers and Nomura. In 2000, Mr. Magnoni became Head of the European Private Equity division and Vice Chairman of Lehman Brothers Inc. and in 2002, Chairman of Lehman Brothers International Italy. Between 2008 and 2013, Mr. Magnoni served as Chairman of Nomura International plc's Investment Banking division for Europe, Middle East and Africa.

Mr. Magnoni is Chairman of M&M Capital Ltd, a London based M&A boutique.

Mr. Magnoni is involved with various philanthropic activities, including Fondazione Laureus Italia and Fondazione Dynamo.

He has been a member of the Advisory Committee of the Bocconi Foundation.

Mr. Magnoni is graduated summa cum laude from Bocconi University, Italy, and holds an MBA from Columbia University.

May 2024